PROSECUTION WILL LIKELY CLOSE THE OFFERING OF TESTIMONY IN CALHOUN CASE THIS AFTERNOON

Witnesses Summoned From Eureka Called a Halt in the Case
This Morning—Interim Is Used in the Argument
by Counsel of Law Points

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—By way of rounding off the case presented during the last two months, Henry called a number of Eureka gum shoe men to the witness stand this morning in the Calhoun case.

Their testimony was of no special importance, the intention merely being to establish by certain facts which might leave a question in the minds of the jury. Save in the case of Robert Perry, who was employed by shadow Abel Ruef, the defense offered no cross-examination and the session went along at a rapid pace.

The defense presented motions to strike out large portions of the testimony which they claim is irrelevant to the present charge. This afternoon will see the conclusion of the prosecution's side of the case.

Today's Session

A packed audience assembled in Carpenter's hall at 10 o'clock this morning when the thirteen jurors took their seats in the box for what was expected to be the last day of the prosecution in the offering of evidence in the Calhoun case. A crowd of persons waited without, standing in line for admittance.

District Attorney Langdon was present and sat with the counsel for the prosecution, but took no part in the proceedings.

Robert Perry, Burns' spy and shadow of Abraham Ruef, was called to the stand by Special Prosecutor Henry, and recounted the alleged trapping of the former boss to the jury. Perry testified that on August 20 and 21, 1906, he took of seeing Calhoun go into the house, and also of Ruef's having had a conversation with Supervisor Duffy on the latter's plumb line wagon, which he had driven up near the house. Later the boss went to Schmitz's house.

Completing Case

After Attorney Moore had brought out that a car strike was in progress at the time in question, the witness was released. Officer Charles Goff was then summoned and testified that he had recently changed to the city the sum of $25 for board and lodging at Haines' house in Trinity county for fifteen days. He added that he had not put in the account before because he had not had the money to pay the bill. He also testified that the time Miss Harper had been employed to do work in his office, and his wife had attended to the typewriting themselves. The defense did not cross-examine Goff, and he was excused, giving place to Roy J. Kelly, another Burns' gum shoe, who produced an unsworn subpoena for John O'Neil.

Shadowed O'Neil

He had been assigned to shadow O'Neil so that he could summon him when he was wanted, but his man had given him the slip after he had watched him for almost a month. He claims that he has been unable to get hold of him since, although he has searched diligently. The witness also produced a subpoena for Mike Morgan. He held that he had been out on the lookout for Mike Morgan, and had watched him secretly around the house of Norman Melrose.

Garry C. Wilson, one time sleuth employed by Abraham Ruef, but more recently given a job by Burns, was then summoned to testify as to his inability to locate Jerry Van Wormer, for whom he had a subpoena.

Bona fide Trapping

"Were these trappings bona fide?" asked Henry.

"Yes, sir," was the answer.

It was here stipulated by both sides that Charles Oliver, who was not present, would certify to his being unable to find Van Wormer if he were called, and Henry then announced that Raymond Schneider, over looked at the time of the trapping, in the Burns' raid, about which he desired to interrogate him.

There was, therefore, a short lull in the proceedings while this work was being performed.

After fifteen minutes Henry announced that Schneider had not found the papers and stated further that there were three more witnesses whom he desired to call.

Await Witnesses

"I am informed that Miss Hitchings and Mr. Lee, so-called, will arrive here at 1:30 this morning, and I suggest that we take an adjournment now until 2 o'clock," Counsel for the prosecution can use the time in preparing their argument, and I suppose the defense may do the same or prepare any testimony they may want to offer."

Attorney Stanley Moore declared that, according to the custom adopted in previous trials, counsel for Calhoun had decided to present certain motions to strike out portions of the testimony heretofore admitted in the case, to which objection was made. These were arranged in the form of a written summary of the testimony desired to be stricken out and were handed to the court and to Henry instead of being orally read.

The jury was then excused until 2 p. m. while counsel remained to argue on a point of law which might not make it necessary to call the third witness.

Henry stated that he desired to show by a witness that as early as March, 1906, the Board of Supervisors of this city and county had been referred to as corrupt and the general impression brought forth that they were hoodlars and entirely controlled by Abraham Ruef. He held that it was competent to show that every man, woman and child in San Francisco knew of the local conditions in that regard.

Mr. King's Reply

He cited a case where a man had been admitted as settling forth a matter of common notoriety, and at the conclusion of his argument, Attorney King made reply. He stated that Congress every time it considered the tariff, was referred to as corrupt.

"Perhaps it was," rejoined Henry, interrupting.

"That's not my opinion," declared the defendant's attorney as he went on to say that he had a higher idea of the principles on which the Government was founded.

Attorney Stanley Moore also argued at some length and stated that the bill-board case to which Henry had referred, but the records of which he had been unable to find, he supposed, must have been suppressed by his author, who was ashamed to let it go forth.

He referred to the other authorities cited by the prosecutor as curious, and declared that Mr. Reardon of Henry's office, who had looked them up, had done

NO OFFER, SAYS FRANK LEACH

Declares He Hasn't Received
Chance to Manage Water

There has been a great deal said about the position having been offered to me. There has also been a great deal said about my having accepted the position. But I desire to say that I have not accepted the office and, in fact, the office has not been offered to me.

"I do not know how the rumors regarding myself and the water company got into the papers, but it is really a fact that the position has never been offered to me. It has not been offered to me by the directors or by any member of the board of directors of the company."

Mr. Leach was told that there was to be a meeting of the directors of the People's Water Company, in the near future for the purpose of considering the presidency and general management and that he would in all probability be requested to be in attendance, and by way of reply said:

"I have not heard anything about the meeting. I suppose if there is any desire expressed to see me I shall be willing to meet with my friends."

Mr. Leach was asked if he would accept the office if it should be tendered him and said:

"Not having been tendered the position it is a delicate matter to discuss the question as to what I might or might not do. The office might not be acceptable."

The question was then propounded as to whether or not there would be any obstacle in the law to his retaining the position of director of the United States mint and the presidency of the water company at the same time and replied that while he had not studied the question very closely, he did not think there was anything of a legal disability that would result to prevent him from holding one office because he might elect to fill another.

In Good Health

Mr. Leach seems to be in good health, although it is also apparent that he has been closely applying himself to business since he was last seen here, several months ago. He was accompanied on his homeward journey by his wife, who also seemed to be in good health, though somewhat fatigued from the journey from the East.

Mr. and Mrs. Leach came via Seattle and spent several days at the Yukon exposition in that city. They were met at the Sixteenth-street depot by their three sons, Frank A. Leach Jr., Abe and Harry Leach, and driven in a pair of automobiles to their home on Hobart street.

BRYAN'S HEAD FULL O' MUSH

Col. George Harvey, Editor of Harper's Weekly, Declares
It Is So

LAWRENCE, Kan., June 11.—Shade of Thomas Jefferson.

Bryan's head was full of mush. It is mushy, and the rest of it. And this from Colonel George Harvey, Editor of Harper's Weekly.

At a banquet given in his honor by the class in journalism of the University of Kansas, last night, Colonel George designated Bryan's head-piece as a breakfast food receptacle. It was a luscious opportunity for Colonel George to slap back at Bryan for the "One Other was Bryan's" reference to Harper's publication as "Morgan's Weekly," and Colonel George showed that he is a "pinch hitter" of no mean caliber.

Met in London

This is the portion of his speech that lingers in his hearers' memories today: "I do not know that it is necessary for me to deny that Mr. Morgan has any connection, directly or indirectly, with Harper's Weekly, and yet such is the case. He never has had. Two years ago, this summer I had occasion to be in London. While there I met two men. One was Mr. Morgan. The other was Mr. Bryan. I believed at that time that the country ought to have a Democratic President."

The London conference lasted the greater part of three days. Mr. Bryan at that time talked in such a manner about a reasonable and sane platform and concerning his policies that I came away with my mind made up to support him with the paper which I edit.

"You probably all remember that Mr. Bryan came home and made a speech in Madison Square Garden. He then came out here and did the same, showing that his head was full of mush. It was for that reason that I could not see my way clear to support him. Had I supported him, do you suppose that he would have referred to Harper's as 'Morgan's Weekly'?"

Lawn Mower Causes Death of Woman

YONKVILLE, Ill., June 11.—Using a lawn-mower cost Mrs. Elizabeth L. Gertrude Sheridan her life. She was taken to the Aurora Hospital yesterday suffering from injuries brought on by the exertions of operating the grass cutter and died there.

Mrs. Sheridan was of an athletic nature and chose the grass-cutting as a diversion. She never had attempted the mowing of the lawn before, but believed it would be only "little more than exercise."

JUMPS OFF PORCH WHILE HE SLEEPS

Francis R. Steele Seriously Hurt By Striking on Wire Fence

BERKELEY, June 11.—Francis R. Steele, a well known University student and a member of the trustees of last year, undertook to do some practice stunts in his sleep about 1 o'clock this morning at his home, 1639 Leroy avenue. Steele has achieved considerable reputation in the intercollegiate meets with Stanford as a pole vaulter. He dreamed that he was breaking some records, and deliberately arising from his couch on the porch of his home, took a flying leap into the air, falling twenty-five feet and striking on a wire fence.

Mrs. Steele, his mother, saw her son go through this gymnastic exercise, and knowing he was prone to somnambulism, rushed from the other end of the porch, where she was sleeping, but failed to reach him in time to prevent the accident.

Assisted by servants, Mrs. Steele sought the place where the young man had fallen, and found him unconscious. He was carried to his room and Dr. John E. Kelsey hurriedly summoned.

Dr. Kelsey found that one ankle had been sprained, that the wire had lacerated and crushed the young man's last and two teeth had been broken out. His back had been badly wrenched and his condition is quite serious.

Missionary Expelled By Native Chief

LAGOS, British West Africa, June 11.—Rev. S. M. Pincock, a missionary of the Foreign Missions Board of the South Baptist Convention, has been expelled from the town of Oyo, in Nigeria. The native chief of Oyo ordered Rev. Pincock to leave last April, but the missionary refused to comply. He appealed to the British government of the province, but this officer declined to interfere. The chief complains that Pincock has refused to recognize his authority. Oyo is located 120 miles northeast of Lagos.

Woman Is Victim Of Brutal Attack

LOS ANGELES, June 11.—Miss Bertha Holmes, 25 years old, living at Fifty-fifth street and Western avenue, was brutally beaten by an unidentified Mexican last night and robbed. Miss Holmes had alighted from a street car at Forty-eighth street, and was walking to her home on Western avenue when hearing Fifty-fourth street her assailant ran up behind her and struck her with his fist in the back of the head, which threw her to the walk.

Mayor Secures Consent of
Moore and Scott to Go
Through Property

Mayor Mott, together with City Engineer Turner, visited the Moore & Scott shipyards at the foot of Adeline street yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of obtaining the consent of the two owners to allow the city to run its Linden street sewer through Moore & Scott's holdings to the creek.

The Mayor was successful in securing the desired right of way, and announces that the work, which has been delayed for several years, will be completed at once.

The Mayor and city engineer report much activity at the shipyards. Over 300 mechanics were found at work on the transport Buford and the ship William Macy. The Buford is one of the largest of the transports plying between San Francisco and the Philippines and is receiving a general overhauling that will take another month to complete.

Money All Lost on Worthless Stocks

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—That the official board of directors of the dormant California Safe Deposit and Trust Company, during its short life squandered nearly $4,000,000 of the deposits of the institutions in worthless stocks of various kind, none of which ever paid a dividend, was the showing being made in Judge J. M. Seawell's department of the Superior Court today by the 16,000 men, women and children who had their savings in the insolvent bank.

The suit is one instituted on behalf of the creditors to determine the civil responsibility of David L. Walker, president; J. D. McKelvey, vice-president and general manager, sentenced to eleventh months in San Quentin for participation in the looking of the bank; James Sullivan, W. E. Burton, E. S. Harmon, James H. Swift, W. AGED MERCHANT DIES SUDDENLY IN STORE

Wm. Nelson Found Dead, Seated in a Chair, By Customer

HEART FAILURE IS GIVEN AS THE CAUSE

Opens Place of Business Early This Morning and Expires Soon Afterward

William Nelson aged 51 years died suddenly this morning at the hardware store of his sons, 320 San Pablo avenue, shortly after having opened up the place of business. The deceased resided at 1609 Benton street with his two sons, Harry and Max Nelson. According to his custom two aged men this morning opened the hardware store for business. He was evidently overcome with heart failure soon afterward as he was found dead, seated in a chair, by W. H. Huts, a customer.

Chief Deputy Coroner Bert Sargent was notified and removed the body to the morgue. Dr. Purita had been called but the deceased was dead when he arrived. An inquest will be held.

DR. HALSPRUNER GIVEN DIVORCE

Secures Decree on Grounds of Cruelty, Although Dead Affinity Is Named

Superior Judge Wood this morning entered a final decree in the case of Dr. W. S. Halsspruner against Mary Ann Halsspruner, on the ground of extreme cruelty although in his testimony he named William H. Chambers as an affiant of his spouse.

About two years ago Dr. Halsspruner shot Chambers with a shotgun in an altercation over his attentions to Mrs. Halsspruner. Chambers was wounded in the head, serious wounds in and other complications developed which resulted in Chambers' death about six weeks after the shooting. Halsspruner was arrested for murder, but was discharged by Justice of the Peace Geary at his preliminary hearing when it was shown by the testimony that Chambers was advancing upon the doctor who had closed a door between them in an effort to avoid him. There was a glass panel in the door and seeing through this that Chambers was still advancing upon him, Halsspruner fired at his rival for his wife's affections. He claimed that he had any intention of killing Chambers.

The details of this incident are given at length in the record of the divorce proceedings. The doctor and his wife were separated at the doctor's home in Alameda. Halsspruner also told the court that his wife had been guilty of calling him the names and to otherwise mistreating him. He said that his wife took up with Chambers and consorted with him principally to annoy and worry her husband and that after the shooting Mrs. Halsspruner called him an assassin. Halsspruner was unable to tell the court his wife's exact age, "as near as I can find out," he said, "she is 15 years old."

Mrs. Lillie Is Elected Grand President of Native Daughters

MRS. EMMA WITTE LILLIE, of Ivy Parlor No. 88, Lodi, Elected Grand President of Native Daughters of the Golden West.

DEL MONTE, Cal., June 11.—At this morning's session of the Grand Parlor of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, an amendment to the constitution was adopted making all members of the first parlor permanent members of the Grand Parlor. After a brief recess the election of officers was begun. Grand Vice-President Lillie of Lodi was unanimously elected grand president and Miss Mamie Peyton of Stockton, grand vice-president.

Laura J. Frazer was re-elected grand secretary and Susie Christ was chosen grand treasurer to succeed herself. Before proceeding with the election of grand trustees, for which places numerous candidates are in the field, an adjournment was taken until this afternoon.

Mrs. Emma Witte-Lillie, grand vice-president of the Native Daughters of the Golden West who succeeded Mrs. Anna L. Monroe as grand president, has done much toward building the order, which was founded by Mrs. Lily O. Reichling of Jackson. Mrs. Lillie has made a splendid record in the Grand Parlor and in all the charitable movements proposed to the parlor she has taken a leading part. The incoming grand president is a resident of Lodi, where she is a past president in Ivy Parlor, No. 88.

Girl Named Accessory to Father's Murder With Which Brother-in-Law Is Charged

ROCKPORT, Ky., June 11.—Charged with murdering the father of the girl he is alleged to have seduced, Clay Smith, aged 25 years, married, is held in the Muhlenberg jail, guarded by a score of officers, as citizens have declared they will lynch him.

In an adjoining cell, named as an accessory to the murder, is Bessie Kimble, aged 15, whom Smith is said to have seduced. On the night of May 16, M. J. Kimble was shot and killed when in his bed. Later his daughter, Bessie, was seen to throw several packages into a pond.

The officers recovered the packages and say they contain letters demonstrating Smith's guilt. The letters had been written by Smith, it is said, and told of the intimacy between Smith and the girl, of her condition and of his demand that she kill her father, as the latter would kill him when he learned the truth. The girl lacked the courage and Smith wrote, it is charged, that he would kill the father himself. Smith's wife is the girl's sister.

Dr. J. J. Benton, who is an attendant, says that Edstrom will probably recover, although the shock to his system is severe. He is 30 years of age and lives at 2010 Third street.

Liner Stranded; Passengers Safe

NEW YORK, June 11.—The Cunard line steamer Slavonia was stranded southeast of Florio Island and her passengers taken off by other vessels, according to a report late this afternoon. The Slavonia left New York June 3 for Naples.

Of her passengers the 110 in the cabins were taken on board the Princess Irene and the Batavia.

It is feared the Slavonia will prove a total wreck.

The stricken passengers, numbering 200 were placed on board the Batavia. The Slavonia is a vessel of 6700 tons is 210 feet long, fifty foot beam and twenty-two feet deep.

8 CHINESE PAY $100 FINE EACH

Produce $800 in U. S. Treasury Notes to Settle Court's Judgment

Eight dirty Chinese fishermen, surrounded by a highly aromatic halo of the funny tribe they hunt, pleaded guilty this morning in the Criminal Department of the State law, Judge Brown imposed upon each a fine of $100, whereupon they all dug down into their old-skin garments and produced the requisite currency to cover the judgment. Clerk Rudolph re-delivered the fines—amounting to $800—which were all paid in treasury notes of the Government.

Judge Brown remarked afterwards that it was more paper money that he had seen in circulation at one time in these parts for a long time. The Chinese parted with their money like good losers and went on their way rejoicing. The alacrity with which they met the fines was a surprise to everybody, because the casual observer would have been willing to wager big odds that there was not $5 to save nothing of $800, in the bunch. The arrests in these cases were made at the instance of the State Board of Game and Fish Commissioners several weeks ago.

WIFE SLAPS FACE OF CHORUS GIRL

Mrs. Lloyd Loses Temper Over Maid Who "Made Eyes" at Husband

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—"My husband has no business to invite chorus girls to supper and every time he does so I am going to make it hot for him and also the girls."

This statement was made by Mrs. Adelaide Lloyd this morning at the hearing before Judge Brown on the citation issued for Mrs. Lloyd to show cause why she should not be arrested for battery.

The citation was issued to Miss Matilda Rodriguez, an actress at the Orpheum, engaged to assist in the play staged by the Lloyds, who alleges that Mrs. Lloyd slapped her in the face.

This morning Mrs. Lloyd admitted the assault but declared that she had been justified, as the Rodriguez girl "made eyes" at her husband.

For a time it seemed that the warrant would be issued, but Harry Lloyd, the husband, smoothed matters when he declared "I wouldn't take Miss Rodriguez out, nor any other girl for $500."

This appeased his wife's wrath and a settlement was arranged with Miss Rodriguez, the complainant.

SECURES DIVORCE AT AGE OF 20

Husband Threatened to "Blow Block" Off With Pistol, She Says

Ida E. R. Whitaker of 1452 Sixteenth street is a divorcee at the age of 20 years. Superior Judge Wood of Alameda county, sitting in Department 2 of the Alameda county court, granted her an interlocutory decree this morning from William A. Whitaker, a local contractor and builder, on the ground of extreme cruelty. She is also given the custody of their little daughter.

Mrs. Whitaker's marital career was very short and tempestuous. She was wedded to Whitaker in San Rafael in March, 1907, and she ceased to live with him in April last. Upon the divorce proceedings followed. Whitaker allowed the case to go by default. According to Mrs. Whitaker's testimony she was living with her husband in most of his spare time calling her vile names and beating her or accusing her of appropriating the love of promiscuous activities. He always went armed with a "gun," according to Mrs. Whitaker and frequently threatened to "blow her block off" in his fits of insane jealousy.

HURRAH! LONG DELAYED SCHOOL VACATION IS HERE

At last the long coveted school vacation has come and many are the boisterous manifestations of joy as the young students frantically rush into the great atmosphere and hurrah again and again as they think of the coming weeks when books will be put aside and all the joyful sports of the American boy can be indulged in to their fullest extent.

Two long pleasure-filled months, and all entirely at their disposal. No more will the cruel parents unmercifully roam the youngsters out of their warm beds, just to have them "look over" those detestable books; no more will the contented boy, lustily disputing the safe arrival at home base, hear the distracted cry of "John, John, you know you have school tomorrow; you have better get up now." No more the heedless guardians will be shown to what a terrible state of oppression they have been subjecting their children by forcing upon them the burden of perpetual obedience to those awful teachers. Perhaps when the joyful effects of freedom are noticed by the awe inspiring father, he will say, "Yes, I think the boy needs a longer rest."

What plans are in progress for the happy days to come? The jaunts to the beach, where, with a string and a bent pin, the contented youngster will sit for hours, darning his feet in the atmosphere and summing upon the sparkling water and sunning upon the sparkling water of presenting a golden fish to his severe, questioning parent as a bribe for his long stay. The tramp across the dusty roads and hills to a neighboring community, where a large set of youngsters, decided out to suffocation in their padded base ball suits, haughtily gaze upon the advancing contestants and finally congratulate them on their arrangements for the ensuing game.

School, said to relate, will reopen August 9.

Oakland Lodge, Order of Good Templars, will celebrate tag day tomorrow for the benefit of the Good Templars' Home at Vallejo. Tags will be sold in all parts of this city and in Alameda under the direction of the members of the local lodge.

At 8 o'clock the Templars will begin to gather the dimes which they expect will greatly swell the funds to be devoted to repairing the orphan's home, where 200 boys and girls are sheltered. Each lodge of the order will observe a tag day on different days until $5000 is raised.

In the tag day scheduled to be held tomorrow the Templars will be assisted in tagging by children of the orphan asylum, Sunday schools and the members of the Oakland lodge.

Mrs. Annie E. Curry, chief Templar of Oakland lodge, will be in charge of the work here.

The headquarters will be at Castle Hall, Twelfth and Franklin streets, where Mrs. C. W. Ernst will receive the returns. Among the active workers of the day will be Miss Clara Mau, Miss Edith Mau, Miss Nettie Stone and Miss Lavina Stone.

AFTER ESTATE OF WHITE WAY QUEEN

Francis Kelley Claims to Have Married Woman By Contract

SAN BERNARDINO, June 11.—James Francis Kelley of Oakland is playing an apparently winning game before a jury in the Superior Court here to secure the rich estate left by Annie Barrett, for years known as the "queen of the great white way." Kelley claims to be her surviving husband. She died a year ago. The estate is valued at $50,000.

According to Kelley, he was married by contract to the woman at 417 Stockton street, San Francisco, August 21, 1891. He says there were six witnesses, among them being Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Proctor of Alameda. Proctor took the stand and corroborated Kelley's claims that he lost the contract.

He declares that after the marriage he left the woman, but they never repudiated their contract. The woman died after months of invalidism, during which time she is believed to have been insane. During that period she executed a will leaving her estate to two women.

Lawsuits followed over various parcels of her estate. While these squabbles were at their height Kelley suddenly appeared and has caused consternation by the showing he has made. Previous to his appearance no one here had an idea the deceased had been married even by contract.

Suffers Hiccoughs For Day and Night

A. G. Young, a prominent old man of San Francisco, called at the Receiving Hospital this afternoon, suffering with a very severe attack of hiccoughs. He was in a very weakened and nervous condition and his ailment was so severe that he could hardly control his jaws in speaking.

He said that he had become suffering continuously with the attack for twenty-four hours, and that he was in terrible misery as a consequence.

Afterward Platt was unable to do anything for him, and sent him to the office of Dr. Koford.

SUNDAY'S DESSERT
"I've ordered Lehnhardt's dessert every Sunday for the last three months"

said an enthusiastic little woman to the writer this morning. "And every brick has been so good that now we all anticipate our Sunday dinner for days in advance. The dessert simply makes the dinner and in addition to worry it saves in planning something new. I save money besides, because I can make my other courses so much simpler."

Five Hundred people are now depending upon Mr. Lehnhardt for their Sunday Desserts. Their trade is very, very valuable, this Sunday brick business has developed into an important asset and it is natural that Mr. Lehnhardt should take great pains to make each brick just as fine and just as perfect and just as delicious as he can make it.

Fresh selected fruits, the fine and pure cream and the most costly ingredients are necessary to make these desserts as fine as we make them.

If we did not sell them in such quantity (sometimes a thousand a Sunday), we would have to either charge more or cut down the size, as under no circumstances would we economize on the quality.

Sunday's Brick will consist of
A LAYER OF FRESH PINEAPPLE ICE CREAM
A LAYER OF FRESH RASPBERRY WATER ICE
A LAYER OF VANILLA ICE CREAM

Each brick contains a full quart or sufficient for eight or nine people. Prices 50c and 80c a brick, according to whether we deliver them or whether you call.

SPECIAL CANDY All day tomorrow and Sunday we will make, every four hours, a special batch of fig chews, something extra. Don't miss it. Very special FIFTY CENTS POUND

MARRIED LIFE WAS ONE LONG BEATING, SAYS WIFE
Freda M. Bruch secured a final decree of divorce in the Superior Court this morning from Joseph F. Bruch, on the ground of extreme cruelty. The couple were married in Dresden, Saxony, and according to her testimony Bruch beat her all the way over to this country, clear across the continent, and all the time they lived in Oakland and adjacent communities until she finally sought refuge in divorce proceedings.

FORMER FOOTBALL MAN NAMED FOR JUDGE
WASHINGTON, June 11.—President Taft sent today the Senate nomination of Peter D. Overfield, to be judge of the Third Judicial Circuit in Alaska. Overfield is a Pennsylvania native and has been a football player for four years. He has also been a football player with the University of Pennsylvania. His nomination was a recommendation by both factions in Alaska.

LA FOLLETTE IS VOTED DOWN

Senate Turns Down His 24 Amendments to Wool Schedule

RESULT OF FINAL VOTE TAKEN WAS 32 TO 44

Senator Cummins Said he Wanted Whole Schedule Sent Back to Committee

WASHINGTON, June 11.—At 2:15 p. m. the Senate voted down the twenty-four amendments to the wool schedule offered yesterday by Senator La Follette. The vote was 32 to 44.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—In the Senate this afternoon Senator La Follette declared that of his course on the wool schedule, Senator Aldrich had forfeited the confidence of other Republican Senators and imperiled his own leadership. The chair called Mr. La Follette to order because of his personal allusions, whereupon the latter complained that the chair had not been so prompt in other instances of the rule.

The Senate on a roll call at 5:15 p. m. today voted to postpone consideration of the income tax question until June 15. Sixty-one senators were on hand at the beginning of the session of the Senate today when consideration of the tariff bill was resumed. Numerous amendments offered by Mr. La Follette providing alterations for specific rates in the wool schedule were taken up for the purpose of voting on them "en bloc" as Vice-President Sherman announced.

Senator Cummins, taking the floor, said he would vote for these amendments not so much because he was satisfied that they were exactly right but because he was sure the schedule imposed by the finance committee was absolutely wrong. Mr. Cummins announced that he would move to recommit the wool schedule to the finance committee.

Flora J. Reynolds was this morning granted an interlocutory decree of divorce by Superior Judge Wells from Frank M. Reynolds, a local contractor of considerable wealth, on the ground of extreme cruelty. Reynolds made a bitter fight to offset his wife's allegations and secure the divorce himself, but there was such a preponderance of evidence in her favor that he was unable to defeat her. The case was tried in open court. Mrs. Reynolds testified that during their marital career her husband had subjected her to all sorts of physical brutalities and humiliations, his conduct towards her at times being almost brutal. She also told the court that Reynolds had repeatedly called her bad names and had even gone to the extreme of compelling her to go to bed with her shadow on. She said that although he was a

Returns From England With His Young Bride

MRS. JAMES HARRIS, English Bride of Well-known Oakland Business Man.

Bringing with him an English bride who, before their marriage fourteen weeks ago, was Miss Ethel Estlin Rosenbaum, daughter of a wealthy Liverpool family. James J. Harris, a well known business man of this city, has returned here after several months spent in England, and is now at the Hotel St. Mark with his young wife.

The wedding is the culmination of a pretty romance which began three years ago when Harris made a trip to England, meeting Miss Rosenbaum for the first time. He came back to this city shortly after, but left a few months ago to settle family estates left him in Liverpool where he was born, though he came to this country when quite a boy.

He renewed his acquaintance with Miss Rosenbaum and after a short engagement the wedding followed fourteen weeks ago. Since that time the young couple have been traveling, having visited the important countries of the Old World and the larger cities of the East on their way to this coast.

It is Mrs. Harris' first trip to this country, though she has relatives living both in Chicago and New York. The couple will make their permanent home here, where Harris will engage in the clothing business.

WOMEN SCORE LEGISLATORS

State Senators Are Called Group of Degenerates by One Suffragist

The final meeting of the Oakland Suffrage Amendment League called forth an enthusiastic congregation of women. Previous to the luncheon the new constitution and by-laws of the society were read and adopted.

The speakers of the afternoon were Miss Mary Fairbrother, Mrs. Sturdevant Peet and Mrs. Lillian Harris Coffin. Mrs. Coffin is one of the most energetic women interested in the suffrage movement and led the organization during last meeting of the legislature at Sacramento.

Her subject for yesterday was "The Joint Guardianship Bills." She has little to say in commendation of the State legislature, declaring that anything gained by women was through personal friendship and not because of a right. She terms legislation a farce as far as women are concerned.

Claim Equal Rights In regards to the joint guardianship, the Suffragists do not wish to take the guardianship from a man, but claim that a woman should have equal rights.

A glowing tribute was paid by the speaker to the Women's Christian Temperance Union for the work it had accomplished in the granting of legal favors to women.

The men of the Senate, Mrs. Coffin called a body of degenerates, and further said that her associates got just what they deserved by appearing before such men.

Miss Mary Fairbrother of San Francisco spoke on "Ecology and Suffrage." She urged the thinking women to continue their claims for the elective franchise that they might evolve a new educational system to meet the needs of the new child.

Mrs. Peet gave a brief talk on the changed sentiment in regard to equal suffrage.

A round table was conducted by Miss Agnes Ray, president of the Oakland Branch. Among those taking part were Mrs. Elmer Carls, Mrs. William Keith, Mrs. A. A. Denison and Mrs. Sanborn. The meetings of the league will be resumed in August.

CHIEF OF POLICE ASKS $176,000 TO RUN DEPARTMENT

According to the estimate now in the hands of City Auditor George Gross it will take the sum of $176,000 to run the police department for the next year. This is about $28,000 in excess of the sum which Wilson made the estimate before he left for the East and made allowances for fifteen additional patrolmen and six detectives. These two items form the larger part of the increase asked for by Chief Wilson.

The department now consists of 121 officers and men. If the fifteen additional are allowed by the City Council it will swell the total to 136 officers and men.

Auditor Gross has sent notices to all of the departments to prepare their estimates for the fiscal year 1909-1910.

MRS. GOULD TELLS OF DINING WITH FARNUM

Court Excuses Former Actress From Telling How Old She Is or the Place of Her Birth

MRS. HOWARD GOULD, On the Witness Stand.

NEW YORK, June 11.—Mrs. Catherine Clemons Gould, continuing her testimony in her suit for a separation from Howard Gould, said she paid $28,000 for the Blue Gap farm near Lynchburg. Mrs. Gould said the farm was controlled by a corporation, in which she had put the most money. After Mrs. Gould had told what she had taken from Castle Wilson to the Lynchburg farm Attorney Nicolli asked the witness her age, but the court excused her from answering or from telling where she was born. Before her marriage Mrs. Gould said she was known as Viola Catherine Clemons and as Viola Day, the latter being the name of her stepfather.

The witness said she had traveled with Colonel Cody and had accompanied his show to Naples, Rome and other European cities. She had seen a good deal of Colonel Cody, as he was her manager, she said.

Dined With Farnum Nicolli next questioned Mrs. Gould about her residence in the St. Regis Hotel in August, 1906. Mrs. Gould said she had company in her rooms for lunch, and dinner and had had Farnum, the actor, had dined with her there. On a motor trip in September she said she met Farnum and dined with him in the restaurant of a hotel in Hartford, Conn.

Mrs. Gould said she met Farnum at the Castle Gould in the fall of 1906. This happened when a conveyance in which she was riding collided with a truck somewhere between New York and Jamaica. She declared she did not go to a road house with Farnum after that collision, but after visiting Castle Gould they stopped on the Vanderbilt Cup Course and had some refreshments brought out, but did not enter the house. Went to St. Regis Mrs. Gould said she could not recall whether she had anything to drink. With Farnum, Mrs. Gould said she returned to the St. Regis Hotel about 11 o'clock that night and Farnum accompanied her to her apartments for a few minutes and then went to his own rooms.

Mrs. Gould stated that she saw Farnum in Washington, October 20, and that she visited the Bull Gap farm in November. The witness then identified bills for jewelry which she had purchased in New York in 1906, including one bill for $57,000, one for $12,000 for a diamond pendant, $22,000 for a diamond chain and $2,000 for a string of pearls. She said she made the purchases without asking the price, having the articles sent home and charged to her account. She was then questioned about the purchase of fourteen and eight blouses in September, 1906.

BARONESS URU NOT A SUFFRAGIST

Opposes Co-Education and Doesn't Think Japanese Women Need Ballot

NEW YORK, June 11.—That America today may be ready for the ballot for women, is a question upon which Baroness Uru, wife of the Japanese vice admiral, declines to express an opinion, but that the women of Japan are not ready is her emphatic declaration.

"I will not put myself down as saying that I do not believe in suffrage for American women, as their problems and those of the women of Japan are wide apart," said the baroness. "I do not believe in the ballot personally, but I believe in the highest mental development for women. Co-education does not appeal to me, but colleges such as Vassar, Smith, Wellesley and Bryn Mawr are a credit to your nation."

"I think women's and men's spheres are entirely different. A woman's brain is complementary to that of her husband. Her usefulness in the world is of a different but as important variety as that of man, but her place is the home."

Angry Mob Forms To Lynch Mexican

LOS ANGELES, June 11.—A dispatch was received today by Sheriff Hamill from the marshal at Brawley, Cal., stating that a Mexican had been arrested there for an attack last night on a little girl and that a mob was forming to lynch the prisoner. It was added that the Mexican is suspected of knowing something of the murder of little Annie Poltera in this city several weeks ago. He fits the description of a suspect who is wanted.

MOORE PLACED ON TRIAL FOR JAIL BREAKING

Sullivan Moore, a negro, who, four months ago broke out of the city jail with eight other prisoners confined in what is commonly known as "vag alley," in the city prison, had his preliminary examination before Police Judge Samuels this morning on a charge of jail breaking and was held to answer for trial before the Superior Court. His bail was fixed at $2000.

Moore was captured at Reno, Nevada, where he made boasts that he would escape before he reached Oakland. He was brought back safely, however, and has been very docile ever since.

IN SAN FRANCISCO SOCIETY MINISTERS ACT AS PALLBEARERS

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—Another romance of which the seed was planted last May during the visit of the fleet, has borne fruit in the announcement of the engagement of Miss Catherine Seales and Ensign George Hays Laird, U. S. N.

Miss Seales, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Seales of Alameda, made known this interesting attachment to about twenty-five of her friends at an informal reception Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Laird, who is a member of the class of '07, is attached to the U. S. S. Cleveland, now in Asiatic waters. He is an exceedingly popular officer and he and his pretty fiancée have the congratulations of the community at large.

One of the most brilliant balls ever given in Louisville, Ky., took place last evening and marked the close of the twenty-fifth annual session of the Music Shriners, who have been the guests of this far-famed southern city for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Crocker will leave immediately for California as they are most anxious to be back in time to welcome Miss Ethel Crocker and her brother, William Crocker Jr., on their return from the east, where they have been at school.

Mrs. Russell J. Wilson, who has been constantly entertained since her return from abroad, was made the guest of honor at a charmingly appointed game of bridge Thursday afternoon by Mrs. James Keeney, who has recently moved into her very attractive home on Buchanan street.

There are two different crowds one sees at the transport dock, one there to speed the parting and the other to welcome loved ones after an absence of ten or more years in the tropics. Yesterday a hilarious group, consisting of mothers, sisters and wives, laughed and cried for joy when the Thomas dropped anchor and among the passengers were Major and Lieutenant General Nelson Miles, is being welcomed by many old friends in this city, which was her home for several years when her father was in command of the Department of California. Among others only too glad to place foot once more on their native soil were Captain and Mrs. F. H. Hamilton, who have many number of friends in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. John Connor have decided in the future to make their home in the country and have bought one of the most attractive places in Napa county. It adjoins "Star's Leap," the palatial home of Horan Blanchard Chase.

SHERIFF AND DEPUTIES KEPT PERFECT ORDER

Sheriff Barnett today received a letter of thanks from Secretary of State Cady of the San Leandro carnival for the efficient manner in which he and his deputies maintained order during the recent festival and citing the fact that the good work of the seven men on the street had on the scene is attested in that no arrests were made during the fair.

While this is true it is known that the sheriff and his deputies can a large number of suspicious characters out of San Leandro during the carnival, so doing they succeeded in keeping under the surface the disagreeable features of lawlessness and no doubt prevented any cases of pocket-picking and other minor crimes that almost invariably occur in gatherings of this kind.

The Portola Festival.

San Franciscans are straining every nerve to make the greatest success of the Portola fiesta to be held October 19-23, and in all probability it will be the most brilliant and imposing public demonstration ever made on the Pacific Coast or possibly on the continent. It is intended to perform a double function, namely, to commemorate the discovery of San Francisco bay by Don Gaspar de Portola and to celebrate the rebuilding of the business quarters of the metropolis. The chief purpose of the festival is, of course, to show to the outside world that the city has been largely restored on grander and more enduring lines than those characterizing it before it was ravaged by quake and fire in April, 1906, and it will doubtless draw thousands of visitors from all parts of the country and from abroad.

Incidentally the festival will inure proportionately to Oakland's benefit, although that is not included in the program of its promoters. It will give the visitors from abroad an opportunity of seeing a great city which has grown up on the eastern shore of the bay, which, with its populous and far-spreading suburbs, has a population equal if not greater than the metropolis; a city which is the trading center of at least one-half million people, which went through the seismic disturbance of April 18, 1906, without suffering serious damage, and escaped from a baptism of fire; a city teeming with industrial life and commercial activity, progressive, prosperous, beautiful in its natural surroundings and through self-adornment; a city of glorious opportunities and brilliant prospects. It will give Oakland the chance to wipe out the stigma which has been fostered in interested quarters that it is a city of only 45,000 or 50,000 inhabitants.

Four months hence the Portola festival will be upon us. It behooves the community to get ready for it. Oakland cannot afford to hide itself under a bushel. Its citizenship must be ready to display its wealth; its growth and development; its resources and advantages for commerce, trade and industry; its attractions for home-making; the prosperous back country of which it is the trade center, and the progress it is making in metropolitan development and the era of unparalleled growth and prosperity which has been opened before it. The event will be one of Oakland's greatest opportunities.

Lakes to Gulf Waterway.

The special board of United States army engineers appointed to report on the proposition of dredging a fourteen-foot deep waterway in the Mississippi river from St. Louis to the gulf of Mexico has reported to Congress that the project is not desirable, on the ground that it would cost $128,000,000 for construction and $6,000,000 annually for maintenance. The proposition constitutes a part of the ambitious scheme started in Chicago after the completion of the drainage canal for the development of a commercial water route from the Great Lakes to the Gulf, in which the drainage canal and the Illinois river were planned to constitute the links joining the waters of Lake Michigan with those of the Mississippi. That the special commission has reported against the deepening of the river is no certainty that the proposition will fail and be permanently abandoned. The big cities which have become interested in the scheme, being located on the line of the proposed waterway, are sure to renew the agitation in its favor with greater vigor than ever.

On the 21st of June the Contra Costa county poor farm, comprising 97.84 acres, located in the Ygnacio valley, is to be sold at public auction to the highest bidder. This is in accordance with a resolution adopted by the Board of Supervisors on May 11, when representation was made that the county has no need for a poor farm. If so, the people of Contra Costa are to be congratulated on their general prosperity and freedom from indigents who are a public charge.

A local lecturer seems to have been guilty of stating that the floor of Death Valley is the lowest spot on earth. It lies 278 feet below sea level. The statement that this is the lowest depression on the globe is as rash as it is erroneous. The surface of the Dead sea, into which the river Jordan drains, lies 1312 feet below the level of the Mediterranean sea. In other words, the surface of the Dead sea is over 1000 feet lower than Death Valley.

State Militia Indiscretions.

The indiscretion of State Adjutant-General Lauck in locating his headquarters at the residence of President Queale at McCloud when the National Guard was ordered by the Governor to the scene of the strike of the mill-hands and the loggers employed by the lumber company there in response to the representations of Sheriff Howard that he was powerless to control the situation after the seizure of the electric light and power plant by the strikers, is the second time in the history of the organization for the same mistake to be committed. In 1871 a strike of the miners in the Amador, subsequently known as the Eureka mine, at Sutter Creek, Amador county, occurred from similar causes to that which prompted the McCloud strike, the only difference being that in the case of the Amador mine strike the miners were American citizens, whereas in the McCloud the original strikers were all foreigners.

In 1871 the First Regiment of the National Guard was dispatched to the scene of trouble to preserve the peace. The commanding officer of the regiment committed the same indiscretion as Adjutant-General Lauck did by accepting the hospitalities of the superintendent of the mine and thereby demonstrating, whether intentional or not, that his command was a partisan and not a neutral factor in the industrial strife. Later on, in that particular case, the Amador mine labor troubles took the form of a stock-jobbing operation whose exposure forced a settlement, although blood was shed before it was accomplished.

Lauck made the grave mistake of not looking up the record of the National Guard and in the light of its past experience avoiding the pitfall into which he unwittingly stepped. Governor Gillett was quicker witted. He at once saw the mistake the adjutant-general had committed and promptly called for an explanation and advised an immediate change of headquarters to neutral ground. The unfortunate thing for General Lauck is that he did not act promptly on the suggestion, but seems to have waited until he got positive orders to move. At that time other agencies had been brought to bear on the strike situation and an amicable adjustment of the trouble had been accomplished. Whether there were any real grounds for it or not, the adjutant-general has brought upon himself by his indiscretion the severest kind of criticism which threatens to impair his usefulness in future as the head of the State militia.

F. M. Smith's Park Site Gift.

F. M. Smith has set a good example to other wealthy, public-spirited citizens worthy of their emulation through the gift of two park sites, one at the junction of Fourth and Fifth avenues and the other between Twenty-first and Twenty-third avenues; an agreement to lay a first-class bituminized pavement the whole length of Fourth avenue, a distance of twenty blocks, at his own expense, the estimated cost being $60,000, and the offer to donate $10,000 toward the erection of a fine boathouse on Lake Merritt to cost $100,000, provided other citizens will contribute the remainder of the fund. These gifts of land and the boulevarding of Fourth avenue will extend the chain of Lake Merritt park lands into the Piedmont hills. Up to date Oakland has been the recipient of but few private gifts for public uses and adornment; but now that a good beginning has been made it ought to prompt other wealthy citizens to make a display of civic pride in the same direction. Everything of that character helps to build up and beautify the city.

There was a big slump in realty values in New York and a general suspension of building in Boston immediately following the financial panic of October, 1907. It is now represented that the former have recovered from the depressing effects of the panic and are as high as they were before that event, with an upward tendency, while building at the "Hub" is more active than it has ever been. These are the strongest proofs of the return of prosperity to the country, for real estate and new buildings are among the first things to feel the influence of any tightening in the money market. In both of these branches of business activity Oakland was one of the first cities on the continent to demonstrate the fact that it had not been deserted by prosperity.

Editorial Comment From Press of the Country

MOST HIGHLY FAVORED.
Puerto Rico has no cause to complain of the manner in which it has been treated by the United States. As a matter of fact, it has been the most highly favored of the country's dependencies. Its people have no other plausible grievance than that they have not been admitted to American citizenship, but under all the circumstances that is a matter of much less importance than the fact that their products are admitted to the United States duty free.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

GETTING ALONG WELL.
That there should be some qualifying amendments of the fundamental act establishing the government of Puerto Rico is apparent. A political deadlock in the island should not be permitted to tie up the government for lack of funds. Relief for the present situation is simple and should be promptly rendered. But if Congress meets the immediate need of funds for the insular government and takes precautions against a repetition of the predicament the situation in Puerto Rico does not appear to warrant much worry. The island is getting along well.—Boston Herald.

NOT PLEASANT WORK.
It is rather gratifying that a people accustomed only to the little training in self-government the Puerto Ricans had under Spanish rule should have gone along so quietly under the change brought about by the war. Still the business of showing them the way has not been particularly pleasant for those Americans who had the job on their hands. There have been many times when the cantankerousness of the Puerto Rican politician with his control over the purse strings of the island has tried the temper of the American administration.—Baltimore News.

UNGRATEFUL.
The President says with truth that "Puerto Rico has been the favored daughter of the United States," which assumes charge of the destinies of the island with the glad approval of the people, but that their representatives have proved ungrateful and have abused their opportunities.—Troy Times.

STILL A FEW PLACES.
"It is now Roosevelt for Mayor of New York City, and there are still a few other difficult jobs remaining which he has not been nominated for."—Syracuse Post-Standard.

DELAY BAD AS DEFEAT.
It is certain that we need to simplify our system of jurisprudence. In civil as well as criminal cases there should be a more swift procedure. Delay is often as bad as defeat. Our criminal dockets are crowded with indictments which never come to trial and which should be handled by the minor judiciary.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

WILL TRUST THE PRESIDENT.
At this distance it is exceedingly difficult to determine the exact balance of fact and equity, because much hinges upon Puerto Rican capacity and disposition, but it is safe to say that Congress and the American people will trust the President's judgment and fairness and stand by him. He has no reason to be unjust and he understands conditions on the island well enough to know what is wisest and best in dealing with its complaints and its interests.—Cleveland Leader.

IN THE "KNOCKER'S CLASS."
Some reports from Puerto Rico represent the natives as discontented with the change from Spanish to American sovereignty, though there has been less criticism and complaint there than in the Philippines. But in both cases the changes for the better have been so great as to put the critics in the "knocker" class, people who will growl anyway.—Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

SUGGESTS A SPANKING.
President Taft's message makes it clear that the time has come for a paternal government to take the Puerto Rican House of Delegates gently but firmly across its knees, with all that that implies.—Boston Globe.

FORESEEING LIVELINESS.
The proposition of Mr. Roosevelt for the new Mayor of New York is evidently born of a willingness to see the municipal politics of that city raised to the highest exponent of liveliness. But does not New York's charter require its Mayor to be a resident of the city?—Pittsburg Dispatch.

QUALIFIED.
"Roosevelt is being talked of for the New York Mayoralty. Having served practically two terms as President of the United States he should be nearly, if not quite, qualified for the high office now under consideration."—Baltimore American.

His latest consoling remark is that our anti-plutocrat movement must not be confounded with European socialism and that America is not so much materialistic as "strongly inspired by puritanical tradition and democratic instincts." A contemporary refers to Mr. Roosevelt as Nimrod. The latter was a mighty hunter, but he never got a dollar a word.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Scientific advancement is to be encouraged and yet it never comes until which our forefathers have never known. The live wire is one of them.—Des Moines Capital.

Dr. Elliot might reduce his "Five Feet of Books" to four feet, and advertise it as a Quadruped of Books.

No More Liberty Bell Trips

Although nothing was done about it by the City Council at this week's session, the indications are clearly in favor of a declaration by that body in favor of keeping the Liberty Bell permanently in its place in Independence Hall. It is well understood that no legislative body can bind its successor to a course of policy, but a resolution or ordinance tending to discourage the further journeyings of the Revolutionary relic about the country will so definitely reflect public opinion upon the subject that it will prove an effectual deterrent.

Lendency in the past, and perhaps the natural desire of Councilmen to see the country at the public expense, had led to the establishment of a precedent with respect to the bell that is now generally regretted. All the associations of the bell are with the old State House, where the bell fulfilled the prophetic inscription which it bears and "proclaimed liberty throughout the land and to all the inhabitants thereof." It is one of the great historic attractions of the city of the declaration, and Philadelphia does neither justice to itself nor to its visitors who nit holds the bell so cheap as to allow its use as a catchenny attraction for local exhibitions in various parts of the country.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Church That Has Coatroom

"I'm familiar with the arrangements of a good many of our best known churches," said a New York man, "but not until a few weeks ago did I come across one equipped with a regular coat room where the men of the congregation went on entering and had their coats, hats and umbrellas checked as one would in a hotel or restaurant. It was a stormy evening, I remember, and the absence of wet umbrellas and damp overcoats was a pleasant relief. On entering the church every man was met and shown to the coatroom, provided, of course, he was not a regular attendant who knew the ropes himself."

This church was not one of the newest, the largest or the richest; but it certainly knew how to enter to the comfort of the men of the congregation, and I for one enjoyed the service much better for not having to bother with my coat, hat and umbrella.—New York Sun.

Henry Watterson's Tribute to Lincoln

We are assembled near the spot where Abraham Lincoln was born to dedicate a memorial in his honor. This memorial is a tribute from the state of his nativity. It is a fitting tribute, for it comes ungrudgingly.

I grew to manhood in the mid-portion of the republic. The keynote of the popular aspiration was love for the Union. It was intense, overmastering, all pervasive. The merest handful at the North, scarcely more than a group at the South, ventured a discord. But when the final trial came the one American who held to the keynote was Abraham Lincoln. He could not be diverted from it. He stood, Doris, the embodiment of the Union. We owe its preservation to his wisdom, to his integrity, to his firmness and his courage. As none other than Washington could have led the armies of the Revolution from Valley Forge to Yorktown, none other than Lincoln could have maintained the government from Sumter to Appomattox. All of us now are Unionists; and though upon the South side of the school-room the educational process was somewhat warming, seemed extra disciplinary, partaking, over-much, as some of us thought, of birch and fettle, we are none the less Unionists that we ranged ourselves in Confederate ranks and made faces at the schoolmaster!

God rules the world, the winds and the waves. He raises mortals to the skies and He casts them down beneath the surface of the earth. In Abraham Lincoln He gave us a symbol of American liberty and a type of American manhood which might be marked and known of all men and seen from afar; glib of bark, fine of grain, of fiber solid and of texture rare; adapted to all uses and capable of exquisite polish. In his career we may learn what an American partisan ought to be as distinguished from what he ought not to be. We only need to read the documentary history of his administration to discover that he was not merely in intellect the foremost man of his time, but that in character he ranks with the few great men of all time.—From Henry Watterson's Address Delivered Monday at the Ceremony of the Unveiling of the Lincoln Statue at Hodgenville, Ky.

Woman's Place in Business

The nonrecognition of woman's place in business life is still prevalent. Many a business man looks upon the feminine element of his office force, from the telephone girl to his private secretary (and what on earth would he do without her?), as a necessary nuisance, and considers the position that woman today holds in American business life an erroneous one.

Nevertheless, the fact remains that over 6,000,000 women and girls in these United States are self-supporting, and with only nine exceptions, they are engaged in every occupation in which men are engaged. Since this is a fact, why shall we say it is wrongly so?

If the feminine element is a necessity in the home, where his majesty throws off the cares of the day and is ready for rest and recreation, may it not be conceded that there are those qualities in women that are necessary as a balance to those masculine qualities which are continually in action in the business world?

It has been said that "women are not all fools, although men seem to expect them to be very often." Woman has an intuitive perception that enables her to see into a thing more quickly than a man; to see at once results other than those satisfactory to selfish desire; she has greater foresight, greater patience; a better sense of harmony, of proportion and of order.

The French recognize these facts, and today in France the wife is not only made familiar with her husband's business, but she has become a most helpful assistant to him in that connection.—The Bookkeeper.

World's Best Synagogue

In the midst of the Jewish quarter stands the pride of Amsterdam Jews, the grandest synagogue in the world. It is "great" in everything, in its size, its proportion, its age and its traditions. There is no synagogue like it anywhere, and while it stands there cannot be anything like it.

The great temple in the Rue de la Victoire in Paris may perhaps be larger, the splendid synagogue in the Oranienburger-strasse in Berlin may be more ornate, but the Portuguese synagogue in Amsterdam has a glory all of its own. Its majestic columns, its solid oak, its noble ark and its lovely windows all speak eloquently of the type of Jew that sought the hospitality of Holland when the cruel and short-sighted policy of the Spain of those days drove the pioneers of the community into the hardy little northern country.

The history of the congregation is not, however, one unbroken record of peace and glory. Curiously enough, its early members, free themselves at last from persecution, seemed at times to make up for the persecution they had endured by their own internal intercommunal intolerance.

Their treatment of Uriel Acosta is a most painful chapter in their local history, and their attitude toward Baruch Spinoza was an error for which no compensation can ever be made. To the visitor to the synagogue is still shown the seat which Spinoza is supposed to have occupied, but the tradition is probably apocryphal.—Jewish Chronicle.

ANENT THE Experts in MEDICINE

Both in England and America the existing method justly has been the subject of severe criticism by the courts and the public, and attempts have been made to remedy it by Parliament and the legislatures of some of the States. As a rule, these have failed because of the opposition of lawyers and physicians of secondary rank in both professions. The evils of the present system may thus be summarized:

1. There are no satisfactory standards of expertise, and thus the testimony of charlatans is invited.
2. The character of the evidence often given by so-called experts is partisan and unreliable.
3. Trials are prolonged and their expense is increased on account of the number of witnesses.
4. The contradictory testimony of experts of apparently equal standing, having the same opportunities for acquiring knowledge of the facts, has a confusing effect upon jurors.
5. Unprincipled self-styled experts are sometimes unscrupulously hired to support causes by specious and untruthful testimony.
6. Some trial judges are prone to permit incompetent so-called experts to testify to opinions predicated upon widely unrelated facts, and to express views which are but the speculative vagaries of ill-informed minds.
7. The expert must depend for compensation solely upon the litigation for whom he testifies.
8. The litigant who has the longest purse can produce the most imposing array of experts.
9. The Bench sometimes permits the Bar to treat the accomplished and modest expert with studied contempt.
10. Some trial judges are disposed to convert important trials into spectacular dramas which not infrequently descend to comedy and degenerate into farce, with the result that the administration of justice is degraded.

Theoretically, an expert is a scientist solely interested in facts, who should retain absolute freedom of judgment and liberty of speech—which it is almost impossible to do where his emolument entirely depends upon the good graces of an employer. It is evident that the commercializing of scientific knowledge, where the compensation for its acquisition and expression depends entirely upon the extent to which it contributes to the success of a litigant, lessens its accuracy and value. The opening years of the twentieth century witness an enormous development of and market for special knowledge. Controversy among experts thus becomes almost inevitable, especially under conditions where they lease their opinions, usually at a large price, to aggrieved and aggressive parties who may profit, either fairly or unfairly, by the doubts which they are deliberately employed to inject into the case. The increase in wealth, the multiplication of the wants of modern civilization, the colossal character of the interests daily requiring the arbitration of courts of justice have resulted, therefore, in the grave abuses in the introduction of expert, especially medical expert, testimony in testamentary and criminal causes until it has come commonly to be believed that such witnesses are so biased that hardly any weight should be given to their opinions. As was recently said by the court of last resort in a New England State: "If there be any kind of testimony that not only is of no value at all, but even worse than that it is that of the medical expert and by the Supreme Court of the United States: 'Experience has shown that opinions of persons professing to be medical experts may be obtained to support any view.'"

The expert witness, to be free from embarrassment of any personal relations to or with the parties to an action, should have no client to serve and no partisan interests or opinions to vindicate. He should give his opinion as the advocate neither of another nor of himself. When he speaks, he should speak judicially, as the representative of the special O-some-schiff-Gybranch brand of science which he professes, governed by the opinions of the great body of authorities in that branch, and in accord with the results of their most recent investigations. When this is done, and not until it is done, shall we have expert testimony rescued from the disrepute into which it has fallen. By the adoption of some such system the mature judgment of the best minds could be obtained, and the superficial opinions of quacks and mountebanks would not be thrust upon the jury to their confusion and the hindrance of justice.—Judge A. T. Clearwater in North American Review.

Mike Donlin With Mabel Hite Will
Be at the Orpheum

MABEL HITE, Coming to the Oakland Orpheum Sunday.

The Orpheum next week is to have Mike Donlin and Mabel Hite, and the theater-goers already are securing seats for the engagement of these two great stars. The bill next Sunday will be, easily, it is said, the most expensive and elaborate show staged since the opening of the theater.

The baseball fans of the city will be especially interested in the coming of Mike Donlin, known as one of the greatest baseball players in the world, for years the hero of the famous team of "Giants" in New York.

Mike Donlin is the husband of Mabel Hite and the two have created a sensation in vaudeville with their musical skit entitled "Stealing Home."

Donlin had a handsome salary as a ball player and Mabel Hite is an equally brilliant star on the stage. When the two doubled up in vaudeville there was a gasp of surprise at the idea of Mike Donlin being rated as an actor, but Mike made good before the footlights as he had done on the ball field, with full credit coming to Mabel Hite for the miracle that was wrought.

An immense salary is now paid these two stars, one much greater than that usually paid an entire vaudeville bill.

When it is considered that the program next week will include not only Mabel Hite and Mike Donlin, but five other great new acts, it is easily understood that the management is right in announcing the program as "a world-beating affair."

Claude Gillingwater, the famous actor, for years under Charles Frohman's direction, will present with a company of players a snappy sketch called "A Struening Reversal."

A European novelty will be provided by the Vindobona, who are musicians and comedians of rare gifts.

Billy Van, the famous minstrel, will have a sparkling monologue.

Mazur and Mazette, with an acrobatic comedy offering, will be new comers.

The "Sunny South," the colored act which has created such a sensation this week, will be retained on the program next week, along with the Bader-La Valle trio and Donald and Carson, the Scotch comedian and his Bonnie Lassie.

BUSINESS MEN WILL FORM NEW ASSOCIATION

MELROSE, June 11.—For the purpose of promoting harmony and good fellowship among the business men of Melrose, and to advance the welfare of the community generally, an association of representative residents of this place is being organized. Its purposes will be similar to those of the Merchants' Exchange in an incorporated city. The club will be known as the Business Men's Association.

One of the first things the organization will undertake, after the election of officers, will be the acquisition of suitable club and meeting rooms. The association will be made up exclusively of men directly engaged in business in Melrose and members of the sanitary, school and fire boards. The club will start with at least fifty names subscribed to the charter roll.

Among the organizers of the association are Dr. K. E. Smith, George A. Taylor, Fred Ellick, Frederick Baumann and Samuel Dalton.

HARRIMAN TAKES FRESNO LINES

Traction Company Now Under Control of the Railway Magnate

FRESNO, June 11.—Within the next few months the entire line of the Fresno Traction Company will be taken over by the Harriman interests. A. G. Wilson, the present manager of the street railway lines, is to be superseded by one of the Harriman officials, but his name has not been made public. These reports were received in this city yesterday from Los Angeles, where General Manager Wilson is confined to his hotel from a recent operation for appendicitis. Local officials of the traction company are still in the dark concerning the proposed change. Among those mentioned to succeed Wilson is Chief Clerk W. Durfy of the local office.

Incidentally, it has leaked out that a more distinct separation will hereafter exist between the Fresno Light and Power Company on one side and the street railway company on the other. The former is controlled by the Huntington interests, while the latter is now owned and controlled by a private corporation, having its headquarters in Los Angeles. A. G. Wilson is general manager for both companies. If the contemplated entry of the Harriman people takes place Wilson will likely assume charge of the light and power company for the Huntington interests.

PRINCESS CHIMAY PURSUES RIGO

Gypsy Violinist and Second Wife Arrive in San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, June 10.—Janet Rigo, gypsy violinist, with his wife, has arrived in San Francisco, and it is believed that the Princess Chimay, whom he loved, won and married, then tossed aside for her cousin, the woman who is now with him, is following close on his track.

Clear across the continent he has been pursued by a stream of passionately written appeals for a return to the old days when he and the titled woman lifted their love around the Folies Bergeres, while the world looked on and laughed at the caprice of genius and beauty.

The Princess Chimay prior to her marriage was a Miss Clara Ward.

USE OF NEW HIGH-GRADE PIANO FREE

This opportunity is not open to any transient party who is wanting a piano just for a short time, and who may want to leave the instrument back on us before we are able to give it a place in our new store.

There are only about 50 left out of more than 200. Over 150 have been put out in the last two weeks. This extraordinary opportunity to get the use of an instrument absolutely free until we are permanently located in our new quarters is almost at an end, but we still have quite a number of brand new instruments to select from in a number of different makes. Of course, if you prefer to rent an instrument year in and year out, we will give you the lowest possible rates, lower now than you could get them anywhere else, as we must find room for every piano we have in stock. We have Grand, Player Pianos and new Uprights, as well as used instruments to select from. The reason of this extraordinary offer is that the landlord of the premises at the expiration of the lease doubled our rent in the middle of the vacation season, and the Helme Piano Company at no time will pay what they consider an unfair rent, as it is not possible to treat the public squarely if you are paying more than the population warrants. The great success of this company has been that they have always insisted upon a reduction on used pianos that you could not get a place to put our instruments so that we will be getting our new waterworks ready. Don't put this off. Before the end of the week your opportunity will be over. Helme Piano Company, 335 Twelfth street, corner Clay street. Open evenings.

Mrs. Fiske Declares Roosevelt Sets Bad Example to Youth of Nation

LOS ANGELES, June 11.—Mrs. Minnie Maddern Fiske, who is playing in Los Angeles in "Salvation Nell," vehemently denounced former President Roosevelt's killing of animals in a statement given to the press yesterday. "There is small bravery required in the killing of wild animals," she said, "and perhaps the attitude of the hunter is nobler than that of the hunter."

Mrs. Fiske gave out the statement without solicitation, "moved by a humanitarian impulse to say something in behalf of the poor dumb brute," as she said later. The statement is in part as follows:

"Men and women the world over, who most appreciate the fine qualities of our chief executive cannot sympathize with his present enterprises.

Pleasure at Death

"Thousands of our American boys want to be like the President. The photographs reproduced in this morning's papers cannot be said to have an uplifting effect upon the modern youth of the United States. There is small bravery required in the killing of wild animals, and perhaps the attitude of the hunter is nobler than that of the hunter."

TRUNK WITH JEWELS TAKEN FROM WIDOW

LOS ANGELES, June 11.—Mrs. Emily E. Terrill, wealthy widow of an eminent army surgeon of San Francisco, sought the arrest of Mrs. Bertha Kutz at the district attorney's office yesterday, declaring that the latter had forcibly taken a trunk belonging to Mrs. Terrill, containing jewelry valued at $1500.

Mrs. Kutz claimed money for professional services, declaring that she had not been paid, and, with Ernest Furtenberg, who is said to be her lover, went to Mrs. Terrill's apartments near San Gabriel on June 6, and, according to the latter's statement, the two overcame her resistance and took away the trunk, borrowing a neighbor's horse and wagon.

The trunk was traced to the Belknap storage house. No trace of the man and woman can be found.

OAKLAND HIGH SCHOOL

PUPILS GIVEN DIPLOMAS

Large Number of Friends and Relatives

Witness Presentation of Sheepskins

by President Hannaford.

The graduation exercises of the Oakland High school were held last night in the Chabot Observatory, being witnessed by crowds of relatives and friends of those receiving diplomas.

At 8 o'clock, Miss Corinne V. Macleise opened this exercises with a piano solo, while the graduates marched upon the platform.

Albert H. Elliott, member of the city council of Oakland, then spoke as follows:

"It seems to me but a few days ago that I sat upon this very platform with my class and listened to the various addresses provided for us, to enable us to appreciate more the benefits and advantages of such an education. And, oh, my friends, how tired I was of the long address, and how I wished that they would cease, would 'cut it out.' Therefore, having had the practical experience, I can feel for these young men and young women, and will limit my remarks to only what is necessary for me to say.

Educational Advantages

"First, we must all realize the wonderful opportunities of our country. We must know that the United States surpasses all other countries with regard to facilities for education. This idea of learning and discipline has been drilled into us since childhood and we thought never makes into consideration the ways and means that enable this vast amount of knowledge to be gained without compensation. This, my friends, is a serious problem and results in many disputes as to proper methods for financially advancing the existing conditions whereby students are gratuitously developed with a broad minded view of life and its obstacles and its possibilities.

"Therefore, in all our exultation over this day to which all have looked forward so long, let us rest a moment from our elevated aspirations, and give thanks to the city tax-payers through whose assistance we have been enabled to educate this large class.

Due to Taxpayer

"It is through them that our improvements are instigated; it is through them that our achievements are accomplished, hence it is to them that a short but sincere expression of gratitude is due in the midst of our completed studies.

"Secondly, we must realize that now is the turning point of all of these young lives: that from tonight they go forth to take their place in this mighty mainstream of business opportunities, either by continuing their studies, or by launching into the strife of affairs. If the former takes place they will have the helping hand of their respective instructors, if the latter takes place they will have the harsh criticism and difficult indifference of the general public to climb above the flurry of materialism.

"In order to overcome the most important of these positive obstacles, the most important precept is and always will be, honest, straightforward, hard work; determination to so conduct themselves as to overthrow the general opinion that they are coming only with the recommendation of a diploma, and to demonstrate their practical abilities in such satisfactory ways as to prove beyond doubt their reflection of intelligence.

Hard Road to Success

"Friends, the royal road to success is watered with the sweat of all applicants to that exalted position, and now that it is the turn of these young people to enter thereon, let them not be found wanting; let them not flinch at the many lurking shadows waiting for a chance to hurl themselves upon them, but let them face straight ahead with the stamp of honor and integrity so conspicuous as to send those shadows, cringing, back to their hiding places, knowing that it would be useless to attempt connection.

"Remember that, as in ancient Greece, thousands were chosen from various institutions to contest for powers of endurance, so these graduates are chosen by the people of Oakland to contest for endurance in the struggle of life.

"Education is the keynote of success; success is the keynote to good, sound government, and good, sound government is the means of enabling and facilitating the first step in this perpetual movement. Therefore, let us all practically demonstrate the old phrase that our government is a government of the people and by the people, by so directing our footsteps at the beginning as to lead us not into the broad and diverging path but into the straight and narrow way, down whose long vista of steps we see a light shining faintly at first, but gradually increasing in splendor as we draw near, till a wonderful vision is ours, the first view of that radiant figure, Victory, guiding our steps till suddenly we find ourselves reflecting the penetrating light which is forever shining as a beacon of safety to the many shipwrecked lives."

Address by Principal

After an enjoyable vocal solo by Bertha V. Heath, Principal C. E. Keyes spoke to the class on the necessity of learning the lesson of having joy in the present. He stated that it was on account of that one idea, the joy in the present, that the graduates had gathered there to witness the exercises, the idea of feeling joyful over the completion of the four year course of study. He was of the opinion that unconsciously we defer present possibilities of happiness, simply through an innate revelation of some form of coming worry, and that in order to always be joyful we must look to the existing circumstances and not to future possibilities.

"Therefore let us all see our blessings as they really exist," he said, "and not as they are to exist in the future; let us be content with the present; and let us appreciate our advantages of today by manifestations of joy to all whom we may encounter."

Katherine L. Kelly then spoke on the influences surrounding a high school student, emphasizing the fact that home, literature, high school and church were the four factors in the preparatory development for entering the higher courses of life.

Cecil E. Earhart addressed the assembly with reference to the conservation of natural resources of this country, stating that in order to guard the rights of the people in years to come, the power of regulating the cutting of timber and of dispersing water power, should be placed in the hands of the State Board of Forestry.

Alumni Scholarship

At the conclusion of the presentation of the alumni scholarship to Catherine L. Kelly, by Harold Oliver, president of the Alumni Association, A. L. Hannaford, president of the Board of Education, awarded the diplomas to the following:

USE IRON BAR IN BEATING OFFICER

Ruffians Hold Grudge Against Special at Theater and Strike Him Down

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11—While on duty in the Star theater, Twenty-fourth and Mission streets, shortly before 11 o'clock last night, Special Policeman Runge was struck on the head by a heavy iron bolt welded by one of two young men who jumped upon him.

Runge supposed that he had had occasion to discipline the pair on some former occasion, and that they held a grudge against him.

He was standing in an aisle when the light suddenly went out. With the coming of darkness he received a blow on the head, which sent him reeling to the floor, and when the electricity was turned on the two youths were making their escape, one of them still carrying the iron bar, which was one and a half feet long.

The officers scoured the neighborhood for them, and notified the Southern station, but up to an early hour this morning they were not located.

The officer's wound was temporarily dressed in a drug store, and at 3 o'clock this morning he applied for treatment at the Mission Emergency Hospital.

Due to Taxpayer

"It is through them that our improvements are instigated; it is through them that our achievements are accomplished, hence it is to them that a short but sincere expression of gratitude is due in the midst of our completed studies.

"Secondly, we must realize that now is the turning point of all of these young lives: that from tonight they go forth to take their place in this mighty mainstream of business opportunities, either by continuing their studies, or by launching into the strife of affairs. If the former takes place they will have the helping hand of their respective instructors, if the latter takes place they will have the harsh criticism and difficult indifference of the general public to climb above the flurry of materialism.

CALKINS PAPERS

TO BE AUCTIONED

Trustee Reports That Only Two Publications of Syndicate Pay Expenses

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11—Judge Milton S. Green, the referee in bankruptcy, made an order yesterday directing George T. Klink, the trustee of the Calkins Newspaper Syndicate, to sell at public auction the majority stock in the following publications held by the bankrupt: Orchard and Farm, Pacific Miner, Wholesalers' and Retailers' Review, Weekly Trade Journal, Pythian Chronicle, Pandex of the Press, Truckee Republic.

The order was made after Trustee Klink had testified that he had no money to pay the running expenses. He stated that the only publications of the syndicate paying the running expenses were the Sacramento Union and the Contra Costa Standard. The Fresno Herald was losing $1000 a month. The receipts during the past three months of the first four publications ordered to be sold were about $3000 a month, not enough to pay expenses.

In his testimony earlier in the day Calkins testified that he had represented a year ago to Bradstreet's that the seven papers were valued at $181,500.

At the hearing Charles J. Deering, cashier of the Union Trust Company, told of loans aggregating $175,000 to the bankrupt, and stated that the only security held by the bank was 150,000 shares of the Calkins Publishing Company, 62,000 shares of the Fresno Republican Company and 1251 shares of the Sacramento Union Company. On the small note for $25,000 there was paid $125 interest. The other notes did not show the payment of any interest.

BULLET PASSES NEAR HIS HEAD

Two Boys Who Are Accused of Firing Shot to Be Placed Under Arrest

SAN LEANDRO, June 11.—Thomas O. Johnson of Clark street missed death by a hair's breadth yesterday afternoon, when a bullet from a .22 caliber gun crashed through a window of his house, passed within a fraction of an inch from his head and lodged in the wall.

Rushing through the window, Johnson was in time to see two fleeing forms and in them he thought he recognized John Christiansen and Alvin Reid, two 14 year old boys. A warrant for their arrest, on a charge of disturbing his peace, was issued and they will be arrested today. The shot, it is believed, was accidental.

PLEADS GUILTY TO PICKING POCKETS

Gust Johnson appeared in the criminal department of the Superior Court late yesterday afternoon and changed his plea of not guilty to the charge of grand larceny, previous to guilty, and at his request the pronouncement of judgment was postponed until June 28, when Judge Brown will have returned from his vacation.

Johnson expects at that time to produce testimony as to his previous good character, which if of sufficient weight, will have considerably to do with the length of his prison term.

Johnson was an accessory to picking the pocket of M. V. Perry, a rancher of Irvington, of $80, on a San Pablo avenue car several weeks ago. John McCauley, his partner, is said to be the party who actually did the job. Perry discovered his loss just as Johnson and McCauley alighted from the car. They were chased through the streets of Emeryville by a crowd of citizens and several police officers, and finally captured.

PLANTING ALFALFA.

We plant alfalfa every month in the year in Glenn county. We are enabled to do this on account of the extremely mild climate and because we have the very best land in which to grow it, and for the further reason that we have abundance of water for irrigation. For instance, last week we planted a portion of the 1200 acres of Jennings Tract No. 2 and this week the alfalfa is growing beautifully. It is remarkable how quickly alfalfa will come up under favorable conditions and how soon we get a crop after it has been properly planted. The work is going ahead beautifully and before the rainy season sets in we hope to have the entire 1200 acres planted to alfalfa. We estimate that the alfalfa grown on this land will pay a net profit per month the first year of $20 per acre; the second year $40 per acre and the third and every year thereafter $60. To grow alfalfa requires no replanting. Planted once, it goes on continuously. We have prepared a booklet entitled, "Alfalfa Growing in Glenn County," which we will mail to persons interested. We sell this land under irrigation, planted to alfalfa, the proceeds of the crops going to the buyer; 10 acres for $1400, $100 down, $15 monthly.

We take a party to Glenn county Saturday at 1:30, return Sunday p.m. Join us, the expense is $6.10. We credit the amount on your contract.

Brother Argnon's
Long Services to Be Highly Praise

REV. BROTHER ARGNON.

The forty-first annual gathering of the Alumni Association of St. Mary's college will be held in Alumni hall next Sunday, with 400 members from various parts of the State in attendance. Father McAlulff will deliver the baccalaureate sermon, as has been his custom for many years, and a feature of this year's session will be a tribute to Brother Argnon, oldest teacher in the Christian Brotherhood on this coast, by the student body and faculty of the school.

Brother Vellesian, president of the college, who was a pupil under Brother Argnon in 1882, will act as spokesman and a vote of thanks for his long years of faithful service and unfailing helpfulness will be offered the veteran teacher. Brother Argnon began the work to which he has given his whole life in 1872, when the brotherhood was young and the work was not so securely established. Many of the prominent men of this State and in high positions in many parts of the world owe their early training to him.

Following the exercises of the day the annual banquet will be held at 7:30 in the evening, when Judge Lennon of Marin county, president of the Alumni Association will preside. A musical program has been prepared by the boys at the school and William A. Kelly, vice-president and Dr. Walter Coffey, treasurer, both of San Francisco, will offer short talks on early days in the college. A. L. Burk, of the class of '92, will give a humorous talk on "Then and Now."

At a session Monday morning the routine business of the association will be cleared away and officers for the ensuing term elected. Judge Lennon will, in all probability, succeed himself as president.

ASK COURT TO FORCE MEETING

Stockholders of Mexican Fibre Company Want to Know of Affairs

According to a petition filed this morning in the Superior Court, there is trouble among the stockholders of the Mexican Standard Fibre Company of Oakland.

One faction, headed by F. C. Hammond, E. I. Bartholomew, Samuel J. Eya, Charles L. Smith and John P. Smith, have asked for a peremptory writ of mandate to compel S. J. Duckworth, vice-president and acting president of the corporation, together with the other members of the directory, to call a special meeting of the stockholders under the provision of the constitution and bylaws for the consideration of the corporation's affairs.

The regular annual meeting of the stockholders should have been held in March, but the petitioners allege that it not only was not held this year but that the stockholders in accordance with the bylaws. It is further charged that despite the fact that on June 4, in accordance with the provisions of the bylaws, parties holding more than one-third of the issued capital stock demanded of Acting President Duckworth, in writing, that he call a meeting. He refused to heed the request. For this reason the petitioners ask the court for an order compelling the officers to comply with their demand and, forthwith call the meeting.

Chains Gun to Tree To Kill Himself

DALLAS, Or., June 11.—E. Kimball, a farmer living three miles from Dallas, committed suicide last night by shooting himself. The gun by which the deed was committed was chained in a tree and a string attached by means of a pulley to the trigger, so that Kimball could discharge the gun while standing in front of his muzzle. He received the charge in his throat, death resulting almost instantly.

The Feast of St. Anthony will be observed on Saturday.

Valuable Item for Men

Health and strength hitherto unknown will be felt surging in rich red blood through the arteries and veins and life's greatest ambitions may be realized as never before. If the following special treatment is followed by those men, and women, too, who are stricken with that most dreaded of all afflictions, nervous exhaustion, accompanied with such symptoms as extreme nervousness, insomnia, cold extremities, melancholia, headaches, constipation and dyspepsia, kidney trouble, dreadful dreams of direful disasters, timidity in venturing and a general inability to act naturally at all times as other people do. Lack of police and equilibrium in men is a constant source of embarrassment even when the public least suspects it. For the benefit of those who want a restoration to full, bounding health and all the happiness accompanying it, the following home treatment is given. It contains no opiates or habit forming drugs whatever. Mix it at home and no one will be the wiser as to your affliction. The treatment is simple, thorough and correct. Leading druggists supply the main ingredients, extracts and essences in one ounce bottles, ready to mix. Get three ounces sarsaparilla compound, mix with one ounce compound fluid balsam, and stand two hours. Add one ounce compound essence cardiol, and one ounce tincture calomel compound (not antimonial). Shake well and take a teaspoonful after each meal and one at bedtime. The ingredients are used for various prescriptions.

BIG RETURNS

'Merchant Prince' Claflin Now Controls All Large Department Stores in New York District

MRS. JOHN CLAFLIN, the Charming Wife of the Dry Goods King.

JOHN CLAFLIN.

NEW YORK, June 10.—John L. Claflin, president of the "dry goods trust" of this city, recently formed, which controls practically all of the large department stores in this district, is among the foremost merchants of the United States. At 58 years of age he has achieved, by overcoming obstacles that would have daunted most men, a practically unrivaled place in the Eastern commercial world, and has in addition amassed an enormous fortune.

His beginning was a humble one. As an office boy before child labor law was thought of, he worked from dawn until dark, spending his nights in an effort to gain at least a rudimentary education. His promotion was slow and he was well up in his twenties before he established a precarious footing in the business world of which he is now a recognized leader.

With Claflin and his wife are prominent charitable work here, which they do in an unostentatious fashion. Yet he is the "merchant prince," as he is popularly known, gives employment to hundreds of thousands of clerks and workmen, directly and indirectly, both through his connection with the larger stores and his influence in civic departments. He makes his permanent home in the large mansion on Fifth avenue he built in the first flush of his fortune 18 years ago.

PERRIN TO PRESS BURNS CHARGE

To Drop Case Against Snell in Order to Push Other Suits

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Dr. Perrin's latest plan, according to his secretary, L. S. Williams, is to drop the perjury charges against his former attorney, Snell, by whose testimony Perrin was convicted of offenses against the land laws, in return for Snell's assistance in fastening the crime of subornation of perjury on Detective Burns and District Attorney Devlin.

Perrin is leaving no stone unturned to obtain satisfaction by humbling both those instruments in his own undoing. He charges that Snell, after being in his employ for years, turned against him, tried to blackmail him for $25,000, and then accepted employment with the secret service to get testimony for Devlin and Burns at $7 a day. The only thing Snell did in the year and a half he was so employed, Perrin claims, was to give perjured testimony against Perrin. His testimony was directly contradicted. Perrin claims, in an affidavit which Snell gave in Arizona when he thought Perrin was going to compromise the suit Snell brought against him for $25,000. Perrin is also inclined at his brother-in-law, Henry, because the latter wrote letters warning him against Snell, yet allowed him to be convicted on Snell's alleged perjured testimony.

NO RELIGION AT POLLS, SAYS TAFT

Country Is Growing More and More Broad-Minded, Declares President

WASHINGTON, June 11.—That "complete church emulation" is a good thing and that there should be in this country no "invidious distinctions in elections because of religious belief," were the tenets of the address made last night by President Taft before the Congress of Roman Catholic missionaries in session in this city.

Taft spoke principally of the work of settling in the Philippines the difficulties caused by the close relationship there of the church and the Government. He expressed the opinion that in the end the church would be strengthened by the change there, "as freedom and toleration and the complete separation of the Church and the State have strengthened the church in this country."

Referring to his visit to Pope Leo XIII, and the subsequent settlement of the church problem in the Philippines, he declared that few extremists in this country had found any exception thereto. "I venture to say," added the President, "that if this visit to Rome had occurred forty years ago, it would have sunk any administration responsible for it, which only goes to show that this country is broad enough for all denominations to work together for the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of men and for all of us to live here as American citizens, and that we should make no invidious distinctions in elections because of religious belief."

M. C. CHAPMAN GOES ON ANNUAL VACATION

M. C. Chapman, the well-known attorney, leaves tomorrow on his annual vacation. He is going to visit his brother at his ranch at Santa Monica, Southern California. Mr. Chapman will be accompanied by his son. He expects to be absent from the city about a month.

PLEASANTON OIL FIELDS MAY BOOM

Effort Is to Be Made to Make Thorough Tests in the District

PLEASANTON, June 11.—Determined efforts to thoroughly test the petroleum and natural gas fields east of this place are soon to be made. Agents of prominent capitalists in Oakland and other Pacific coast cities have been recently employed quietly securing options and leases on farms in the Pleasanton oil district which lies less than two miles from town.

This work of negotiating leases follows closely on the examination by experts of what has long been suspected as oil bearing farms owned by Louis Foveler, Charles Rief, Phil Cobb, Mrs. Clement and others. An oil basin installed a few weeks ago at a seepage point on one of these farms was quickly filled with crude petroleum having a paraffine base. Four gallons of this oil was taken away by an expert. Shortly thereafter agents appeared here to negotiate for leases.

It is understood that several wells will shortly be sunk in the district and little doubt is entertained but that flowing oil will be found.

A well sunk to a depth of 740 feet, more than a year ago, reached oil-bearing sand and emitted a heavy flow of gas. By accident or design the well borer dropped his tools the reverse way in the well with the result that he plugged the bore. It was found impossible to recover the tools or clear the well though Mr. Clement offered a bonus of $5000 to anybody who would accomplish that object.

Recent activity of oil experts here has set tongues wagging and there bids fair to be an oil boom here in the near future.

SEEK THEIR RELEASE.

To Picture Yosemite

Moving Pictures Being Taken of Y. V. Road for Use in Theaters All Over Country.

Francis Boggs, producer for the Polyscope Company, accompanied by a party of fourteen people, arrived in Merced last evening and at noon today started on a special train over the Yosemite Valley Railroad for El Portal. This train started from the Southern Pacific station and consisted of an engine and one coach, the coach being pushed in front of the engine. On the platform of this coach was located a complete moving picture photographic outfit and the entire route between the Southern Pacific station and El Portal will be photographed. From El Portal Mr. Boggs and his party will go into the Yosemite Valley, where they will spend three weeks photographing all of the points of interest in that great wonderland, including the Big Trees. About 10,000 feet of negatives will be obtained on this trip and the picture will be shown in 10,000 different theaters in the United States, and in all of the theaters of Europe, where American films are used. This is the first attempt to photograph Merced and the Yosemite Valley for moving picture purposes, and the event is of more than passing importance from the fact that aside from the wonderland scenic views, that will be obtained, a large number of educational and feature stories will also be made. The fame of Merced and the Yosemite Valley will be spread over almost the entire English speaking world, by the means of these motion pictures. Mr. Boggs intends to return again next winter and photograph the valley during the time snow covers the landscape.

LARGE ADVANCE SALE FOR DREW PERFORMANCES

John Drew will be seen in his new play "Jack Straw" at the Macdonough next Tuesday evening. He will also give a Wednesday matinee and will conclude his engagement in Oakland Wednesday evening. Mr. Drew has a very interesting play this season and has met with remarkable success throughout the west. The advance sale of seats for his Oakland engagement has been very large and the indications are that he will be given a very warm reception when he plays here.

"Jack Straw" was first produced in London and became popular with the theater goers in that city. It had a long and successful season in the British capital. The play was then brought to this side of the ocean for Mr. Drew and he opened his New York season in it last year.

Next Monday night "Till, Taff, Pout" will be the attraction at the Macdonough Theater. It is said that the company is well balanced and gives an excellent performance.

SAVES LIFE OF CHILD BY SHOT

Babe Rescued From Attack of Hawk By Marksmanship of Girl

FAIRFAX, June 11.—Miss Hester Burley, the pretty 17-year-old daughter of Henry T. Burley, a prominent rancher and well-known sportsman of Meriden county, saved a little child from a hawk's attack by her marksmanship with a 22-caliber rifle.

Miss Burley is entertaining as her guest her sister, Mrs. Arthur Minor of Richmond, Va. Mrs. Minor's daughter, Alice, aged 3, was playing with some young chickens in the rear of the Burley residence. The little girl had been feeding the chickens with bread crumbs, and thinking that she was safely occupied her mother left her.

Shortly afterward Mrs. Minor and Miss Burley were startled by the cries of the child. Uncertain of what danger the little one might be in, Miss Burley seized her rifle from its place in the rear hall and hurried to the back of the house.

R. P. SCHWERIN TALKS PLAINLY ABOUT PACIFIC MAIL MATTERS

Says That W. R. Wheeler Is to Blame for the Conditions Which Among Other Things Led Up to Pacific Mail Abandoning Isthmus Trade

SAN FRANCISCO, June 11.—R. P. Schwerin, vice president and general manager of the Pacific Mail, returned here last night from the East, and without reserve gave a full opinion of the recent shipping situation and of William R. Wheeler in detail.

It was a general review of the vital matters of shipping and the placing of blame for the withdrawal of the Pacific Mail from its old Panama Isthmus business. "There was one time," he declared with emphasis, "and that is that I ever supported a local institution nor takes pride in the welfare of its own people's undertakings."

"I met William R. Wheeler in the East, and when I told him that the Pacific Mail would have to withdraw from the Panama service he said: 'That's the best thing that could happen to San Francisco.'"

"I suppose that's the proper spirit. But I can't understand it," he asked. "It was William R. Wheeler. When he was Assistant Secretary of Commerce and Labor he said that he could not conscientiously advise the expenditure of government money for the opening of the station, run by at least not until the Panama Canal was opened. And he came from San Francisco. He so thoroughly impressed upon the mind of the department that it ought not to be opened that it never will be opened. It is shut up and going to rack and ruin, just because a San Francisco man said he could not conscientiously advise the expenditure of government money for a purpose that would have helped his own city."

Raps Him Hard
"If a Congressman acted that way and didn't get any appropriations for his own district, how long do you suppose it would be before he would become persona non grata in his own home? And it isn't much either."

"There never was a man at Washington that did more to kill the Chinese business of the Pacific Mail than Wheeler. Now there is a certain amount of traffic that is perfectly legal, and you would have thought that Wheeler, as a man from San Francisco, would have been interested in his own city, but he was the cause of all sorts of restrictions being placed on the business."

Also Commissioner Lane
"Who is responsible for the fact that the Pacific Mail no longer carries any cotton out of San Francisco for the Orient?" Schwerin asked, and the answer was "Commissioner Lane."

"He said to me, 'How can you justify taking cotton by the long railroad haul to San Francisco instead of having it go by the natural route through the Suez?'"

"So it goes through the Suez; and that is San Francisco's spirit, too."

Isthmus Business
Concerning the withdrawal of the Panama Isthmus business by the Pacific Mail, Mr. Schwerin said:

"You talk about an independent line to the Isthmus. Bates and Chesbrough talk about an independent line, too. All I have to say is that a fool and his money are soon parted. What Bates and Chesbrough want is to see the Government establish a line on this Coast and make them its agents, and that is a laudable ambition on their part. But show me how any independent line could pay and we will get in as much trouble as we are in now."

"The Pacific Mail lost $187,000 in the last eleven months on the Panama service. We used to be able to carry that loss from the earnings of the trans-Pacific service, but since the ruling of the Interstate Commerce Commission we have been losing there, too. Last year our total loss was $328,000, and if you subtract $187,000 from $328,000 you will see what the Oriental service of the company lost in the last year."

the service, and Rogers, the attorney for the Panama road, wired me to know if I would consent to keep the boats on the run until an investigation could be had, and for sixty days after the secretary should make his decision as to a different division of the rate with us. I told him that I would not. Then, when I got to Chicago, he wired me to know if I would postpone the withdrawal of the service until sixty days after the secretary's decision. If it should be made on or before August 1st, I told him that I would. Under the first suggestion he could have kept the matter open for a year if he should have wanted to do so.

Company's Position
"Our position is this: We will not continue the present service on through light to New York unless we get a different division of the rate. The reduction of the port charges are a part of our contention. At present we get fifty per cent of the rate, and have to pay the port charges out of our half."

"If we withdraw, the government will either have to put a line of its own on this side or get some other line to take the service. In the former case it would cost the government $500,000 a year. Our contention is that it would be better for the government to pay us a part of that $500,000 than to take it all out of the taxpayers of the country."

Taxpayers' Rights
When asked if the Pacific Mail should be given what it asked for would it put on a better class of steamers and establish a direct service to the Isthmus, Schwerin responded with an emphatic negative. When it was suggested that in that case a government line would be run, then what the Pacific Mail was prepared to offer, even if it was granted the division of the rates it sought, Schwerin replied:

"But we don't believe that the taxpayers of the east will stand being taxed for the betterment of the service from San Francisco at the government expense."

Operate at a Loss
"If the government puts on a line of its own it must be operated at a loss, for half the time they would sail from here without cargoes."

"Take the American-Hawaiian line — it could not operate at a profit if it were not for the sugar. When the Virginian left here the other day she went light to the islands for a sugar cargo. If she had been on the Panama run for the government she would have had to sail south light."

"The newspapers say that we are making rates to help the railroads. Now what does the Southern Pacific care for the tonnage of freight we carry? There was a time that it might have done, but it has too much business now to care for little things."

"I was in Stubb's office the other day and I said to him: 'Stubb, when did I ever talk to you about a rate?' and he said: 'I really don't remember, Schwerin.'"

WOMEN STRUGGLE WITH BURGLAR

Two Society Girls Seriously Hurt in Battle With Masked Thief

NEW YORK, June 11.—After a desperate struggle in the dark, two young society women forced a burglar to flee before them at Oyster Bay, in the early hours of the morning. The victory was dearly bought, for both of them were seriously injured, one having her hand almost amputated by slashing blows of the burglar's bowie knife, while the other was dangerously cut about the head with a jimmy.

CURE YOUR RHEUMATISM AT HOME

A Michigan Veteran Tells How He Was Permanently Cured of a Severe Case

Every sufferer from rheumatism wants to be cured and to stay cured. The prospect of the return of the same old rheumatism every year is not attractive to anybody who has gone through one stage. Most treatments aim simply to "keep down" the rheumatic poisons in the blood. The tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills has proved by hundreds of cases that it builds up the blood to a point that enables it to cast out these poisons through the regular channels of excretion, the bowels, kidneys and the skin. When this is done the rheumatism is permanently cured and as long as the blood is kept pure and rich the patient will be immune from attacks of rheumatism.

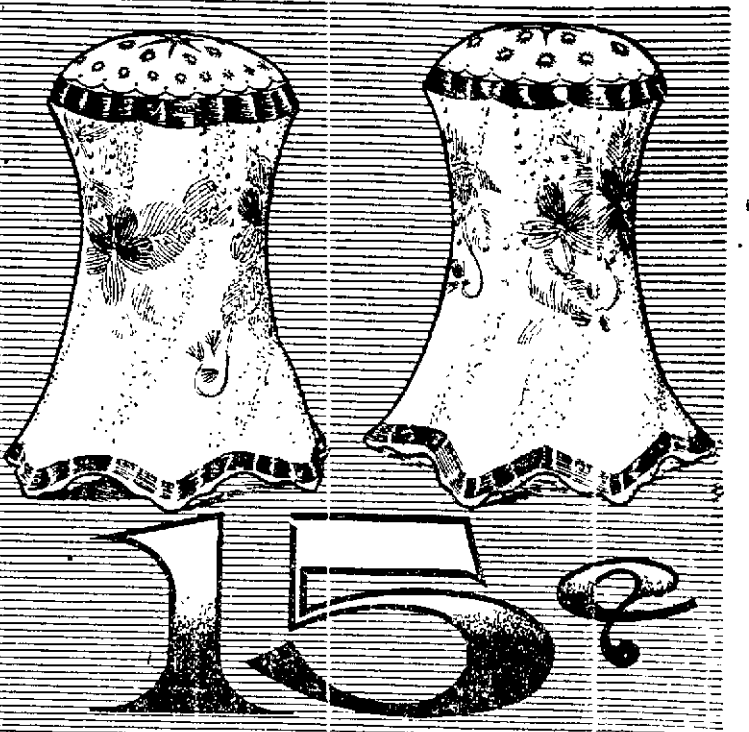

Mr. David McCarthy, farmer and formerly postmaster of Capin, Mich., is a veteran of the Civil War, having served in Co. E, 14th Michigan Volunteer Infantry. He says: "For over a year I had rheumatism so badly that I couldn't turn over in bed. There were sharp pains through my hips and left side, which would catch me so quickly that it often seemed as though my back would break. My appetite was very poor and my kidneys were affected. I could not lie on my back but would have to be propped up in bed on my right side. The pain was not so bad and I could eat and sleep better. I gave the pills a good trial and have never had a return of the trouble."

If you are suffering from rheumatism in any form and find that the treatment you are taking does not relieve you, or if you are actually getting worse while taking other treatment, then do not delay but give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a thorough trial. The remedy that cures other will cure you.

A valuable booklet, "Diseases of the Blood," containing more information about rheumatism and other diseases of the blood will be sent free upon request.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes, $2.50, by Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

See What We Have Discovered

Now you know we have not been making these special Sunday Dessert Bricks for a very long time and of course, as is natural, the greater majority of the people of Oakland do not know how well we can do it.

But just listen to what those who do know it and have tried it are doing. They are actually trying to keep it a secret from their friends where they get the Dessert on Sunday which these very friends rave over.

Now we can't stand this. It's poor advertising. Dear friends of ours must not hide our light under a bushel. Let your friends know where to get the exclusive Dessert you are so happy and proud in using.

This week the brick contains FRENCH BISQUE PEACH GLACE AND VANILLA ICE CREAM, and it is the purest and most delicious Dessert for your Sunday dinner possible of manufacture.

When you telephone ask about the automobile we are giving away.
50 cents a full quart if you send for it
80 cents if we deliver it to you, packed in ice
